

HR EMPLOYEE POLICY DOCUMENT

1. Employee Onboarding Process

New hires must complete all paperwork, including tax forms, emergency contacts, and bank details, before their first shift.

Each employee receives a unique employee_id upon registration in the HR management system.

Orientation includes a property tour, introduction to department heads, and review of all policy documents.

Department-specific training must be completed within the first 14 days of employment.

A probationary period of 90 days applies to all new hires, during which performance is evaluated monthly.

Upon successful completion of probation, the employee receives a confirmation letter and becomes eligible for full benefits.

2. Working Hours

Standard full-time schedule: 40 hours per week, typically structured as five 8-hour shifts.

Front desk and housekeeping operate on a rotating shift system covering 24 hours.

Overtime is defined as any hours worked beyond 40 hours per week or 8 hours per day.

Overtime must be pre-approved by the department head and is compensated at 1.5 times the regular hourly rate.

Employees are entitled to one 30-minute meal break and two 15-minute rest breaks per 8-hour shift.

3. Attendance Rules

Employees must clock in and out using the biometric timekeeping system at the start and end of each shift.

Late arrival by more than 15 minutes is recorded as a tardy. Three tardies in a 30-day period result in a written warning.

Absence without prior notification is classified as unauthorized absence and triggers disciplinary action.

Employees must report absences at least two hours before their scheduled shift start time.

Medical documentation is required for sick leave exceeding two consecutive days.

4. Leave Types

Sick Leave

Full-time employees accrue 10 days of paid sick leave per calendar year.

Unused sick leave does not carry over to the next calendar year.

Sick leave exceeding 10 days in a year is unpaid unless covered by statutory benefits.

Annual Leave

Employees accrue annual leave at a rate of 1.25 days per month, totaling 15 days per year.

Annual leave requests must be submitted at least 14 days in advance and approved by the department head.

Up to 5 days of unused annual leave may be carried over to the next year with management approval.

Unpaid Leave

Unpaid leave may be granted for personal reasons, subject to operational requirements and management approval.

Requests for unpaid leave exceeding 14 days require approval from the HR Director.

Employees on unpaid leave for more than 30 days may have their benefits suspended during the leave period.

5. Code of Conduct

Employees must maintain a professional appearance and wear the approved uniform during all shifts.

Confidential guest information must not be disclosed to unauthorized persons.

Harassment, discrimination, and bullying of any kind are strictly prohibited.

The use of alcohol or illegal substances on hotel premises is grounds for immediate termination.

Employees must report any conflicts of interest, including relationships with vendors or competitors.

Social media posts related to the hotel must not disclose internal information or criticize the hotel, guests, or colleagues.

6. Disciplinary Actions

Verbal Warning: Issued for minor infractions such as tardiness or uniform violations.

Written Warning: Issued for repeated minor infractions or first-time moderate violations.

Final Written Warning: Issued for serious violations or repeated moderate infractions.

Suspension: Up to 14 days without pay, pending investigation of serious misconduct.

Termination: Immediate dismissal for gross misconduct, including theft, violence, or severe breach of confidentiality.

All disciplinary actions are documented in the employee's personnel file and may affect bonus eligibility.

7. Promotion Criteria

Employees must have completed at least 12 months in their current role to be eligible for promotion.

A performance rating of 'Meets Expectations' or higher in the last two review cycles is required.

Candidates must demonstrate leadership potential, technical competence, and alignment with hotel values.

Internal job postings are published on the employee portal for a minimum of 10 business days.

Promotions are approved by the department head and HR Director based on interview performance and reference checks.

Promoted employees enter a 60-day transition period with a performance review at the 30-day mark.

Note: All promotion decisions are documented and communicated in writing. Employees may request feedback if not selected.
